Lake

- Verily and Public Health is working on a solution for those who do not have access to email to be able to sign up for mobile testing.
- Public Health is working on signing an agreement with University of California, San Francisco, to streamline the lab testing process.
- Public Health will be meeting with each facility to begin performing their own routine testing and monitoring procedures.

Los Angeles

- Los Angeles Department of Mental Health has data elements pending.

San Francisco

- No field testing handled by Outbreak Management Branch for the next 72 hours.
- Color mobile testing moved from Local Health Hospital to Jewish Home to conduct COVID-19 testing on May 21, 2020.

San Mateo

- Deployed a Medical Task Force (MTF) to Milbrae Skilled Care of approximately 20 medical personnel and dedicated Advanced Life Support ambulance to stabilize the facility in the interest of averting evacuation. The patient census at this facility is approximately 102 and test results indicate minimum of 32 residents and 4 staff who are COVID-19 positive. Numerous care providers intrinsic to the facility are not presenting to work their scheduled shifts. The MTF is providing 24/7 support and has implemented a dedicated PPE donning/doffing station, PPE retraining for all staff, implemented an infection control plan, closed facility to visitors, and cohorting COVID-19 positive residents.
